2019 Meaningfulworld Humanitarian Mission to Armenia

30 years of service to Armenia

Humanitarian Empowerment, Healing, Transforming Horizontal Violence, launching the

FIRST Suicide Lifeline

Call to action

6-20, October 2019, Meaningfulworld team will travel to Georgia & Armenia for a follow-up Humanitarian Outreach mission. Dr. Kalayjian initiated and led the first outreach mission to Armenia immediately after the devastating earthquake in 1988; since then we have continued to work consistently in Armenia. Our team will be comprised of Dr. Kalayjian & Dr. Medina, also accompanying are Dr. & Mrs. Ann Takooshian. Our goals are: 1) To promote emotional healing and wellbeing; 2) To transform generational trauma of Ottoman Turkish Genocide; 3) To transform horizontal violence; 4) To train professionals in the 7-Step Integrative Healing Model; 5) To establish Peace & Forgiveness Gardens; 6) To empower orphans in Children's Centers, and 7) To launch the FIRST suicide lifeline set forth in previous missions. We are invited to present at the Yerevan State University's 100th Anniversary Conference, entitled: The current issues in Theoretical & Applied Psychology; for educators, mental health professionals, psychologists, and health providers psyconf@ysu.am.

Since 2011 Armenia has opened its arms to Syrian refugees. According to the publication The Economist, Armenia has accepted the third largest proportion of Syrian refugees relative to its general population. Our team will conduct workshops on empowering young girls and boys to learn the UN Declaration for Human Rights, the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals, emotional intelligence, mindfulness, and meaning-making.

As part of this mission we will bring donations of medical and basic hygiene supplies, educational and play materials for children and adults, donations of essential oils and Flower Remedies.

Your donations are greatly appreciated and are tax-deductible, kindly just click the following link with an open heart: http://meaningfulworld.com/get-involved/donation.

Our Motto: When one helps another, BOTH become stronger!
