A Letter from the Editor

Greetings!

Our June`s Edition comes with multiple blessings! On 6 June, we celebrated the graduates of Meaningfulworld Ambassadors for Humanitarian Service and Peacekeeping. We are so proud of them. On the same day we had our 10th Annual Mind-Body-Eco-Spirit Festival at the United Nations entitled Healing Wounds of Violence: SDG's in Action. We are proudly announcing the beginning of the second year of the International Post Graduate Fellowship Program in International Psychology, Global Humanitarian Relief, Human Rights and Policy Development. Our Humanitarian Relief Mission team is in Nigeria and Niger Delta since 8 June. Their hard work embraces sharing emotional intelligence, peace building, conflict transformation and the creation of the Gardens of Peace and Forgiveness. What a wonderful mission! We invite you to our 2019 Meaningfulworld Garden Gratitude & Healing Party on Saturday 27 July (RSVP by 20 July to Dr. Ani, please contact her at +1.201-941-2266 or send an email to: drkalayjian@meaningfulworld.com). We also invite you to make a difference and be a change agent. You are encouraged to join us the following ways: as a volunteer, a fellow, an intern, or a donor, to mention just a few. At Meaningfulworld you may apply to be a volunteer, a college intern (and get credits), a graduate fellow, a coordinator, or a supporter. If you want to make a tax-deductible donation, it doesn't need much to be a change agent. At the end of this issue, we present to you some ideas on how to help us make a better world.
