SEPTEMBER 19

MONROE COLLEGE PROUDLY HOSTS AN IMPORTANT TALK IN PARTNERSHIP
WITH ATOP MEANINGFULWORLD AT THE UNITED NATIONS:

Transforming Victimhood to Victorhood: Through Forgiveness and Meaning-Making

As we celebrate the International Day of Peace, Monroe College is delighted to welcome distinguished guests on the front lines of global humanitarian efforts to help those impacted by war, conflict, and natural disasters. Learn about their work to help those who are suffering rise up from their trauma – and how you can help.

1:00 PM | GADDY ATRIUM | 380 Main Street, New Rochelle

GUEST SPEAKER:

Dr. Ani Kalayjian, renowned expert on the psychological effects of trauma in disaster victims

FELLOW PANELISTS:

Sowmya Kshtriya, UN Coordinator for ATOP MeaningfulWorld

Dr. Arabia Mollette, local Bronx-based ER physician with a personal tragedy-to-triumph journey

Professor Anne Paule, faculty member at Monroe and domestic violence policy and victims' rights advocate
