

Announcing a forum on  International Psychology today

“How can psychologists and students become more involved in international work?” Psychologists today are increasingly active in global activities, like the international Council of Psychologists (ICP) and Psychology Coalition at the United Nations (PCUN). This forum brings together several experts to speak about their diverse international activities.

Moderator: Harold Takooshian, PhD, Psychology, Fordham
 Welcome: Elaine P. Congress, DSW, MA, Book Editor, PCUN
Mara Cohen, MA, PCUN Social Media & Montclair State University
Leonard Davidman, PhD, Manhattan Psychological Association
Artemis Pipinelli, PhD, NYSPA Division of Women’s Issues (DOWI)
Maria Elisa Vannoni, President, Fordham-LC Psi Chi Honor Society

Presenters:

Elaine H. Olaoye, PhD, ICP Main Representative to the UN
 Promoting heroism and prosocial behavior
Roseanne L. Flores, PhD, Hunter College
 Psychologists’ role in promoting human rights
Ani Kalayjian, EdD, Columbia Univ & Meaningful World
 Suicide awareness and prevention: A global challenge

1 November 2023, Wednesday
6-6:30 pm gathering & book-signing, 6:30-8:15 pm Forum
 Fordham University, 113 West 60 St., room 1022 (floor 10)

Refreshments are served. All are welcome.

 This forum is hosted by the Fordham Social Psychology seminar, in cooperation with Psi Chi, SPSSI-NY, Manhattan Psychological Assoc, Psychology Coalition at the United Nations. For any details: takoosh@aol.com

Thanks to the NYSPA Division of Women’s Issues (DOWI) for kindly offering refreshments.

Notes: <https://gss.news.fordham.edu/uncategorized/event-behavioral-science-at-the-united-nations-forum/> www.psychologycoalitionun.org , <https://icpweb.org/> , www.spssi.org/ny
<https://www.infoagepub.com/series/International-Psychology>

