Carmen M. Velez

“When one helps another, both become stronger.” These words defined my experience with ATOP MeaningfulWorld. The program taught me that service is not only about offering support, but about building strength through connection, empathy and purpose. What stays with me most is the experience of being surrounded by a community rooted in compassion, healthier habits and a deeper sense of responsibility to help build peace and dignity in a world that truly needs it.

Working with MeaningfulWorld has been an extremely fulfilling experience. This internship has provided me a unique opportunity to make lasting positive impacts on communities in need. In less than I year I have learned how to select & research grants, presented at national conferences, contributed to writing a research paper, and acquired leadership skills as an outreach coordinator. Joining ATOP Meaningfulworld has taught me many skills I never knew I could achieve in a single internship experience.
